News from Council Chairman

As Little Brown Church council chairman and moderator, I have a few updates for this month's newsletter:

Our church council normally meets once a month on a Wednesday evening at 6:30 p.m. With changes in membership, and to accommodate each member's busy schedule, we recently met at an unusual date and time: July 9, Sunday morning, at 9:30 a.m. This new change going forward may better suit our church council members' active lives.

A few important action items came out of council.

- 1) There may be a termite problem in the parsonage house, so we are having Wilson Property Management arrange for a termite inspection.
- 2) We plan to contact a handyman to review maintenance projects that need to be addressed. Projects include:
  - A) Rebuilding the parsonage front porch (safety issue)
  - B) Get an estimate for a wood storage shed to replace the metal one on parsonage's rear deck
  - C) Get an estimate to replace the linoleum floor in Babbitt Hall
- 3) Have A-1 Septic Service company check the status of the common septic tank for Kirk House and parsonage.
- 4) Kevin Matlock with friend John Rigter, along with other volunteers, hope to install a light tower behind the stained glass window sometime in August.

Lastly, a new issue has come to my attention as of July 30. Landy White discovered that the courtyard fountain motor appears to be inoperative. A replacement motor is low cost, but the replacement process is difficult. It requires partial disassembly of the fountain. More to come later on this issue and solution.

Thank you all,
Allen Cook

Shelter dinners

Following are the dates on which LBC will serve dinner at Sunrise Village homeless shelter in Fremont during the next 12 months:

Tuesday, August 15, 2017

Wednesday, October 11, 2017

Tuesday, November 21, 2017

Monday, January 29, 2018

Tuesday, April 17, 2018

Tuesday, June 19, 2018

Please let Robin Spindler know if you can help.

The menu for August 15 is summer salads: pasta, potato, spinach, you get the idea. Menu ideas for other dinners are always welcome! Let Robin know about your favorite recipes that work well for a hungry crowd of residents and a crew of amateur but enthusiastic cooks.
