July 28 Painting Party

We urgently need a crew of volunteers to paint our new storage shed. The big day is Saturday, July 28, at 9 a.m. Equipment will be provided.

If you can help, please email Council Chair Allen Cook at allen6028@aol.com or reply to this newsletter so we know how many to expect.

Replacing the Cross on the Steeple

Our cross is back on the steeple where it belongs, thanks to Agapito Chavez-Reyes and his crew from Premier Roofing of Livermore. After Pastor Mary arranged for them to replace the cross, they donated the labor and gave us a reduced rate on the cherry-picker.

Mary reports:

"They took off the rotted wooden holder, replaced it with new pressure-treated wood, painted it and added another coat onto the cross, then painted the whole base."

Shelter Dinner and Summertime

Thanks again to all our homeless shelter helpers! On June 19, Robin Spindler, Mary Conant, Landy White, Ray Mendonca, Helene Villarreal, Kathy Scott and Barbara Egbert cooked a delicious dinner and served it at Sunrise Village in Fremont.

Best wishes for everyone enjoying vacation travels and other summer activities!
