News from the LBC Council Chair

Greetings everyone,

With vaccinations becoming common against the pandemic and herd immunity not far away, we are very hopeful that Little Brown Church will soon be open again for in-house services on a weekly basis. Once again, we will hear the sound of our historic church bell ringing loud and clear on Sunday mornings, signifying the beginning and end of the service. I'm sure the town of Sunol will respond positively and will love the sound of our bell echoing throughout Kilkare Canyon.

The church council will meet in the near future to discuss and plan the reopening logistics for Little Brown Church of Sunol.

Blessings to all,
Allen Cook
